 3. The 3rd instalment of Rs. 4,10,000/- (Rupees four lakh ten thousand only) shall be payable to the loanee after the construction of the building has reached the roof level provided the Department is satisfied that the development of the area in which the house is built is complete in respect of amenities such as water supply, lighting, roads, drainage and sewerage.
 4. That the construction of the house shall be carried out exactly in accordance with the approved plan, estimates and specifications in the prescribed forms which should be submitted to the Government along with the Mortgage Deed;
 5. That he shall insure the house immediately on completion of construction at his own cost for a sum not less than the amount of the advance with interest due thereon and shall keep it so insured against damage by fire, lighting, cyclone and floods, year after year till the advance with interest due thereon is fully repaid to Government and deposit the policy with the Government;
 6. That the construction should be completed within 18 months of the date on which the first instalment of the sanctioned advance is drawn by him;
 7. That the house is maintained in good condition, repair at his own cost and he shall continue to pay all the municipal taxes and local taxes regularly until the advance has been repaid in full;
 8. That he shall keep the building from all encumbrances; and
 9. That any amount drawn by him in excess of the expenditure incurred should be refunded to Government together with interest thereon if any, forthwith.
2. Grant of advance is also subject to the following conditions:-
- a. Shall be carried strictly in accordance with the approved plan and specifications on the basis of which the amount of advance has been sanctioned. The plan and specifications must not be departed from without the prior concurrence of the Government. The grantee shall certify when applying for installments of advance admissible at the plinth and roof level in accordance with the plan and estimates furnished by him to the Government that construction has been carried out that the advance has actually been used to verify the correctness of the certificates.
 - b. The construction of the building shall be completed within 18 months of the date on which the first instalment of the advance is paid to the grantee. Failure to do so will render the grantee liable to refund the entire amount advance to him (together with interest thereon) in one lumpsum. The date of completion must be reported to Government without delay.

Contd..... 2.

- c. Immediately on completion of construction of the house the grantee shall insure the house at his own cost, for a sum not less than the amount of the advance and shall keep it so insured against damages by fire, flood or lightning until the advance is fully repaid to the Government and deposit the policy with the Government.
 - d. The house must be maintained in good condition at his own cost and the grantee shall continue to pay all municipal and local taxes regularly until the advance has been repaid in full. He shall also keep it free from all encumbrances.
3. This loan together with interest at the provisional rate of 5½% (simple interest) per annum shall be recovered as per the rules and orders issued from time to time. The recovery of principal shall be made first and then interest.
4. The recovery of the advance granted to the above individual shall commence immediately from the next month after the disbursement of the first instalment of loan, to the effect that the house has not been completed. The recovery of the advance shall be affected through the monthly pay/leave salary bills. The principal amount of the advance granted Rs.12,30,000/- (Rupees twelve lakhs thirty thousand only) shall be recovered in (123) equal monthly instalments i.e. @ Rs.10,000/- (Rupees ten thousand only) and the interest shall be recovered in (35) instalments thereafter.
